

Memory Studies Master Class

www.memorystudies-frankfurt.com

Special Focus: Migration and Transcultural Memory

Dagmar Brunow (Linnaeus University)
Film Heritage, Archives and Memory
Tuesday 16 May | 12-2 pm | IG 1.414

This Master Class is addressed to all advanced students, PhD candidates and PostDocs who have a keen interest in memory studies and film studies. You will have the opportunity to discuss the connection of film, archives, and memory with one of the internationally most renowned researchers in this field.

Dagmar Brunow's recent book Remediating Transcultural Memory (de Gruyter, 2015) is a contribution to the emerging field of media memory studies, offering new takes on concepts such as transculturality, remediation and the archive. Her current research project (financed by the Swedish Research Council) examines the creation of transnational and transcultural memories in national film archives.

To sign up for the Master Class please write an email to Prof. Astrid Erll (erll@em.uni-frankfurt.de). There is a limited number of slots for project presentations (ca. 15 mins); please indicate in your email whether you wish to discuss your own research with Dr Brunow.
