We kindly invite you to participate in a discussion with Kenyan author Yvonne Adhiambo Owuor. The conversation will focus on her novel Dust (2013), which explores the many facets of post-independent Kenya. Her novel was shortlisted for the Folio Prize and won the Jomo Kenyatta Prize for Literature in 2015. This student-led discussion is part of Dr. Hanna Teichler's seminar "Transoceanic Imaginaries" and has been facilitated by the Frankfurt Memory Studies Platform.
